Teacher's Institute – No School

Monday, November 5, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Monday, Nov. 5th. As we start the month of November, your challenge is to make others feel good. What are some ways you can do this? Here at school, you can make others feel good by paying them a compliment about how they look, be a friend to someone at lunch and on the playground, and, if it's ok with your teacher, clap for someone who tries their best. You can make others feel good at home by helping out with chores, taking care of your younger brothers and sisters, and just being respectful to your family members. Make others feel good today and have a great day!

Tuesday, November 6, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Tuesday, November 6. We all love to laugh at funny jokes or pictures but have you ever laughed at someone else who wasn't trying to be funny? Maybe they were trying hard to write their name, throw a ball, jump rope, or read out loud. Boys and girls, it is ok to laugh at funny things but it is NOT ok to laugh at others. Laughing at others who are trying their best is hurtful and mean – you are not being respectful or responsible when you laugh at others. Your challenge today is to help others who work very hard at something you might be good at – not laugh at them. Be kind!

Don't forget that this Thursday is Spirit Day, Wear Red or Black on Thursday to represent Spirit Day! The class with the most participation wins and receives bragging rights, a certificate, and a traveling plaque to display in your classroom. Plus you are entered into a chance to win a pizza party for your class. Go Bombers!

The Pride team is still accepting Veterans Day Poster Contest entries until Thursday of this week. If you would like the chance to win a prize and show off your work at the assembly please get your entry in to the office by Thursday.

The Girl Scout Troops (60, 473, & 1110) are having a fundraiser Tuesday, 11/6, at McDonalds by the Fairgrounds from 4-8pm. The money will go towards a camping trip next spring.

Remember to clean up after you eat. That means your spork papers, milk cartons, napkins, straws, food, etc. Help keep our cafeteria clean. Also, remember NO GUM! Yesterday, I unfortunately stepped in gum as I was walking to the buses. DO NOT bring gum into the building. This includes gum of any kind! If you have any kind of treat with gum involved, please throw them in the trash can now. Thank you!

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Wednesday, Nov. 7th. Did you know that if you are someone who likes to listen to music, dance, draw, paint, write poems or stories you are a creative person? People who are creative can also be very interesting because they have many ideas to share. Creative people also work very hard at improving something – they are not happy unless they are doing something better. As a creative person, you might like it when things change and are not always the same. Anyone can be creative – try it and have a great day

Don't forget that this Tomorrow is Spirit Day, Wear Red or Black on Thursday to represent Spirit Day! Today is Spirit Day! Our Teacher Of Pride award winners for this month are Mr. Dave and Mrs. Sharon Buschur!

Mr. Dave has worked at BV for over 20 years. He puts his heart and soul into his job. He is prompt and efficient at getting stuff done and goes out of his way to help teachers. He is a good communicator with Admin and everyone he deals with. I want to nominate him because what he does shouldn't go unseen.

Mrs. Bushur goes above and beyond on a daily basis. Not only does she have an enormous caseload, she puts herself out there for her fellow co-workers and all of her students wholeheartedly. She does bus duty in the afternoon, which is a task in itself. She deserves this award for all of the hard work she puts into all the people around her.

Monday, November 26, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Monday, Nov. 26th. I hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving break! Because Christmas is right around the corner, now is the time to think about giving. The holiday season should be a time for you to think about what you can do for others – not just what others can do for you. Remember that there are all kinds of gifts – the gift of friendship, the gift of helping someone else, or just the gift of a smile. Think about what you will be giving others and have a great day!

Tuesday, November 27, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Tuesday, Nov. 27th. When you look around your classroom or your school, you see many different types of people. Some have different skin colors, hair, height, weight, and some even speak a different language. One of the best things you can do is get to know someone who is different from you. You will learn so much and make a new friend. Get to know others who are different than you today and have a great day!

Picture Retakes will be tomorrow Wed., Nov. 28. If you'd like to have your picture retaken please bring your original picture package with you to the photographer. Wednesday, November 28, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Wednesday, Nov. 28th. It's cold outside but did you know that many children do not have warm clothes to wear? It's true! Some children have to go to school and play outside without a warm sweater, sweatshirt, or coat. If you and your family have extra clothes in your house that someone else can use, please think about donating these to a place like Goodwill, the Salvation Army, or even your school! Think about how you can help someone stay warm and Make a great day!

Penny war is on. Have you brought in your coins. All monies will be going to Siteman Cancer Research. Please bring in those coins!!

Thursday, November 29, 2018

Good Morning Belle Valley! Today is Thursday, Nov. 29th. I have a challenge for you today that will help you practice 2 of the 3 Big Ideas: Be Respectful and Be Responsible! If you see someone who is being teased, treated unfairly, or even being bullied, I want you to be courageous and stand up for that person. When you stand up for others, you will be a person others will look up to and feel safe around. If you are in Stand for the Silent, you are learning about this. Practice being courageous and have a great day!

Friday, November 30, 2018

Good morning, Belle Valley! Today is Friday, Nov 30th. If you have given a gift to someone else – not a store-bought gift – but a gift of your friendship,

I am so proud of you. I also hope you have gotten to know someone who is different from you and made a new friend, donated some warm clothing to others who do not have any, and stood up for someone else, you have had an awesome week! Please practice these as much as you can and have a great day and weekend!
